What difference does it make? His birth, I mean. Did it change anything at all? Armies still march, though now under different banners than those of the Roman Legion. The poor we still have with us, as He said. The fear of violence haunts our days and nights whether we dwell in first century Jerusalem or twentieth century Union. Illness yet afflicts us and those we love, and death will one day claim us all. So, Merry Christmas. Does it matter?

For your answer look into the eyes of a child on Christmas morning. Take a walk on a cold December night and wonder at the beauty of the lights that pierce the darkness. Receive a card from a long forgotten friend. Visit a homeless shelter or a soup kitchen. Go to midnight mass. Forgive someone who's wronged you. Apologize to someone you've hurt. Give more time to your family. Appreciate what you've got. Pray more. Judge less. Reach out to someone in pain. Sacrifice for others without counting the costs, or looking for gratitude. Live your life. Open your eyes and see.

Make room for Him. Let Him in. Walk with Him. Let Him change you. It matters.

May the blessings of the Lord's presence be with you and with those you love, at Christmas and always.

The month of December is upon us. And with it so is the holiday season. Actually, as far as the shopping centers are concerned the holiday season started right after Halloween. I'm sure that most of us are busy with their Christmas shopping. What I would ask, and hopefully I can take my own advice, is that you try to remember the true spirit and meaning of Christmas. Let's try not to get caught up in all the commercialism. As we walk through the malls, and also as we drive around the parking lots trying to find a parking space, let's remember that as the song says "T'is the season to be jolly".

This is still a reasonably busy month for the Council. Our First Friday program continues with our Chaplain, Father Ed Gedrich celebrating Mass. The guest speaker will be from the Township's Police Department. We will have the Children's Christmas Party on the 17th. I'm sure Santa Claus would really like to see all of our children there. On the 31st will be our New Year's Eve Party. What better way to bring in the New Year and a New Decade than with your Brother Knights at the Council. On December 11th will be our Annual Christmas Dinner Meeting. At this meeting the 2nd drawing of this Columbian year's 50/50 Charitable Raffle will be held. Because of this raffle we have been able to make some real important charitable donations from the money raised by the raffle. The amount that we have been raising with each raffle has been slowly dwindling. I ask for your support of the raffle so that we may continue the donations that we have been able to make because of it. Besides at this time of year I'm sure we could all use a little extra money if we win it.

On behalf of the Council Officers, my wife, Debbie, my daughters, Kristin and Jillian and myself, I would like to extend our wishes to all of you for a very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Safe and Healthy New Year.
