Grand Knight's Column

Ray Fluet

Brrr!!! That chill in the air can mean only one thing, winter is upon us. Along with the beginning of winter comes one of the most joyous times for people in our Catholic religion, the celebration of the birth of Christ. This is a very appropriate time to reflect on our religion and what it means to us and how important a role it plays in our lives. How would you answer the question, Do I do enough to support my religion and give back to God everything he does for me? I am sure almost all of us could do more. The Knights of Columbus offers many opportunities for you to get closer to God. One way is through our First Friday Program. For those of you who may be unaware, on the first Friday of every month we celebrate mass at our council home starting at 7:30 p.m. Our next program is on December 3rd, please consider attending.

I would like to thank Ross Bove and Tony Shans plus all who lent a helping hand for organizing our adult Halloween party, I would like to thank Frank Maffie and all who helped him with our well attended children's Halloween party. I would also like to thank Barney Capp and Gary Hornig plus the kitchen crew for their efforts with the memorial mass and finally I would like to thank Dominick Clementoni for his continued efforts with our recently completed blood drive.

In closing I would like to wish everybody a very happy, healthy and religious Christmas and New Years.
