"THE WAY IT WAS"

On Friday, March 22nd, the Council held its first "Men's Night Out". Honored at the dinner was B. Warren Hehl, PGK for his vision, daring and creativity while serving as the first Council Columbian Club President.

This was a night to remember. Many of the one hundred men who attended were part of the venturesome group who banded together to build our council home.

When you consider the fact that this group of men started with only one thousand dollars and managed to locate and purchase land along with designing and constructing this building, it really took lots of courage. In order to purchase the land a group of Brothers signed individual five hundred dollar promissory notes at the bank. Other Brothers made one hundred dollar pledges.

Warren was applauded by the group at the dinner for his outstanding leadership and direction during these challenging times.

Lou Giacona, the first Council lecture, was the Toast Master for the evening's program. Other speakers were Stephen Hehl, Andy Popp, Judge McKensey and Grand Knight Ernie Santorelli. Many interesting and amusing incidents were presented.

George Arnold, PGK, who was the first Grand Knight to preside over a Council Meeting in the new Council Home, was the chairman for the event. Other members of the committee were Robert Wozinak, PGK, PFN, Thomas Hornig, PGK, John Relton FCCP, and Andrew Popp, PGK.

A special thank you to all the Brothers who worked in the kitchen all day. The meal you provided was fantastic.

Everyone had an enjoyable evening in addition to learning about the "Way it was".

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH May 1996

Brother Knight Nicholas Iarossi

Brother Knight Nicholas Iarossi has only been a member of the order for a short time, but he has been active almost since joining. He joined the council approximately three years ago and soon after joining helped the then membership director with recruiting and interviewing. In 1995, he ran a council bus trip to Atlantic City in which he sold out two buses. He is currently serving as the council membership director and he was also co-chairman of this years Retarded Citizens Drive. He has also consulted for the council in our dealings with the post office. Nick frequently helps behind the scenes in many other capacities.

He and his wife, Lisa, are parishioners of Holy Spirit Church in Union. They have two daughters, Alyssa, age 8, and Natalie, age 6. They have been residents of Union for the past ten years.

His hobbies include spending time with his wife and daughters and watching and sometimes playing hockey. He is also active in the Fairway Drive Civic Association where he has run several events for them.

He has been employed by the United States Postal Service for the past twelve years and is currently the postmaster of Franklin Park. He is a graduate of East Side High.

Accordingly, Union Council is pleased and proud to name Brother Knight Nicholas Iarossi as Knight of the Month for May 1996.

Grand Knight's Column

Ernie Santorelli

May is upon us and that could only mean two things. Our Annual State Convention is fast approaching and my year as Grand

Knight of Union Council 4504 is coming to an end. Where did the Columbian year go? I can recall just being down in Wildwood and hosting last year's convention and preparing myself as the incoming Grand Knight. I can't help reflecting on all that has taken place this past year. All the events, the planning, the man hours that you all gave, I assure you it was all worth it, believe it or not you helped your fellow citizen as well as yourself.

As I reflect back to all that we accomplished I can't help think of the brother knights that our council has lost, they will be missed. I ask you all to keep them in your prayers. My thanks to Pat Scanlon and his committee for all the hard work they put into the St. Patrick's Party, as well as Gary Hornig who also ran a successful March Madness. A special thanks to Both Mrs. Scanlon and Mrs. Hornig for playing a key role on both events.

I hope that most of you by now have made your reservation for the convention, and if you never attended, I encourage you to do so. You will not regret it.

Until next month, may God bless you all and I look forward to seeing you all in Wildwood.

Ernie Santorelli
Grand Knight
