NEWARK AIRPORT CHAPEL - A REALITY

Back in the term of G. K. Lonnie Pannucci, a resolution was acted upon and passed to help start a chapel at Newark International Airport. During the term of G. K. Mike Ward, we received recognition from Archbishop Gerety for our help and organization of the chapel idea.

Now in the term of G. K. Tom McGarvey, the chapel is a reality. It exists in Terminal B at Newark International Airport. This chapel is no cathedral with high spirals and organ music; but, it is a small and blessed place where weary travelers can spend a moment in meditation or to attend Mass. There are no large signs or chimes signaling its location.

Our chapel is located along side the barber shop near the Delta Airlines ramps. Father Salvatore Malanga is the airport chaplain and a brother Knight who is most grateful for our support and prayers that made this dream a reality.

Our new chapel does not have a name as of yet, but this should be resolved in the very near future. The official dedication will be blessed by our new Archbishop Theodore E. McCarrick who is the Holy Father's appointee in charge of all airport chapels in the United States. Watch for more detail in upcoming "Digests" about Our Chapel.

This chapel cannot exist on prayer alone, it needs your financial support as well. (Particularly because we are paying the prime rate per square foot for rent.) We, the Knights of 4505, will try to defray some of the costs by helping Father Malanga and the Archdiocese by becoming a sponsor and belonging to "F.A.M.I.L.Y." This is an acronym for "Fellowship of Airport Ministry Involving Laity and Youth."

For a donation of $5.00 you can be a part of the "FAMILY". You will receive a blessed membership pin and membership card. This small donation will also enroll you in the chapel's membership book. You will be remembered in all the prayers and masses at the chapel for one year.

Please contact John Peters, the chapel's Knights of Columbus council representative, for your membership.

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Well, this is it, the digest has finally arrived and our new publisher is J. S. Paluch Company, Inc. out of Schiller Park, Chicago. A lot has taken place, however, over the past few months before we arrived at this point.

Last October the Council was informed that upon completing printing of the November Digest, our publisher, White Printing, was going out of business. The Council immediately set out to (1) secure another publisher and (2) find a way to print our own Digest in the interim.

Tony Shans was successful in contracting our present publisher to a one year contract at no cost to the council. The publisher's income is derived solely from advertising revenue.

John Peters, our Public Relations chairman, became overnight, our editor, publisher, etc. John put the Digest together with help from the following Brother Knights; Barney Capriglione PGK, Tom Hornig PGK, Ed Laczynski and, of course, John's wife Kathi. I'm sure you'll agree that the December and January Digest issues were of excellent quality.

On behalf of the members of Union Council 4504 I commend these Brother Knights for a job well done and I thank them for their exceptional effort.

An effort is also being made this month for a group of special children whose life's road was made tougher through mental retardation. On February 14, 1987, Union Council will sponsor it's annual Valentine's Day dance at our Council Hall with all proceeds going to Camp Fatima, a summer camp for retarded children. Please support this worthy cause by purchasing raffle tickets, a ticket to the dinner dance or by sending in a donation. A special thanks to co-chairmen PGK's Andy Popp, Tom Hornig and Barney Capriglione whose efforts, I'm sure, will bring this affair to a successful conclusion.

Thomas H. McGarvey
Grand Knight

THE TAX MAN COMETH

After the regular meeting on January 12, the Knights who were present were given a very worthwhile and well-prepared presentation on the 1986 Tax Reform Act, and the effects it will have on each of us as we file the beloved 1040. The presentation was given by two CPAs from a local accounting firm.

It was mentioned that the new tax code is called "simple and fair" by those who devised it. Well, it may be fair, but simple? During the presentation it became clear that, at least to my limited mind, the code is anything but simple. To deal with deductions, exemptions, exclusions, expenses, capital gains, rate schedules, itemizing, etc. is no one's idea of a good time. I began to feel grateful that a priest's salary is quite small, so hopefully I can be spared a lot of this paperwork. My sympathy and prayers go out for all who have to meet the tax code head-on. After hearing some of the bewildering distinctions of this "simple" code, one of the brother Knights was heard to quip, "I would be better off not working!" A tempting thought indeed, especially at tax time.

I suppose tax-induced headaches are not new. Remember the controversy in Our Lord's time? He told his disciples that we owe debts to both Caesar (the government) and God. In America, few responsible people would deny that we should all do our share.

The tax man cometh soon. As we struggle with all the fine points of this "simple" tax code, I wish you all a sense of humor and God's peace. We will probably need both.
