WHERE GOD AND SEA COME TOGETHER

Brothers: the Council is re-activating the Retreat Club at San Alfonso by the Ocean in Long Branch. The N. J. State Council sponsors a weekend in October (23-25). The environment is beautiful and the Retreat is Spiritually rewarding.

A Retreat offers you an opportunity to stand aside and get a very clear perspective on your life, your family, your career, your plans for the future. It also affords a wonderful inner peace to face problems with new courage.

Call Frank Weishapl for further details, 908-687-0781.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS

If you have the opportunity to give your children or grandchildren one million dollars wouldn't you do it???

The Knights of Columbus children's insurance program will provide for a great systematic savings vehicle. Based on our dividend scale today, your children or grandchildren will be able to accumulate over one million dollars in cash value in the future.

Best of all, it is about $30 a month in some cases to get them started on this tremendous benefit.

Grand Knight's Column

Rich Esposito/GK

As I begin this term, I would like to thank everyone who believed in me, making it possible to be Grand Knight for the Union Council. I have been looking forward to the new year with much enthusiasm. Like all new Grand Knights, we assume this position with many challenges, new ideas and plans for the future, but even with the best intentions in mind, many ideas never get off the ground.

Some of the projects I am planning, in addition to the usual events that we hold every year, is a car raffle to raise substantial money for the charities we sponsor and a family roller skating or bowling night. Don't forget that we have also planned "Joey and Mary's Irish-Italian Wedding" for November. I'd also like to revive the adults' Halloween Party.

We are the largest council in the State – every goal we set for ourselves is attainable. There is no reason why we cannot reach these goals if we all work together.

Our past achievements should be a springboard on which to build our future. There is simply no way to grow without taking chances – let us all take a chance and get involved – let's get our council moving forward. The only people who never fail are those who never try – Let's all try! You dream a dream and then you build it – we can build our council this year.

Grand Knight,
Rich Esposito

Chaplain's Column

REV. ANTHONY NARDO

Once again I would like to congratulate Larry Killmer for doing a great job as Grand Knight last year. I also would like to thank all the other officers and all Those who lent a hand for making our Council the outstanding Council it is. I also look forward to the leadership of Richard Esposito as Grand Knight this coming year and I look forward to all the newly elected officers who will work with him, carrying forward our great tradition.

When you read this, Father's Day will have already been celebrated. But I thought I would like to say something about the important role of fathers in the family. This reflection is taken from the 'Christopher' publication, 'Three Minutes A Day.' 'Support, strength and sensitivity. These are the qualities that comprise a good father, one who provides a framework for trust and love within a family.

Children cry out for their fathers. Our world is rife with fractured families due to divorce, dysfunction and drugs of all kinds. As God guides His children to walk upright in the world, so does a father provide an example of righteousness for his progeny.

God placed a trust in fathers. Their special responsibility is to be strong in love, yet gentle in guidance; to support the family's needs, and to serve with wisdom, calmness and laughter.

Let's do all we can to give fathers as well as mothers and children the respect and practical support they need to make homes and families filled with love. "The Lord honors a father above his children, and He confirms a mother" right over her children. (Sirach 3:2).

Fr. Anthony

A PRAYER FOR DIRECTION

Show me, O God, your ways, and teach me your paths. Direct my steps according to your word, that no injustice may rule over me. Make perfect my walking in your paths, that my footsteps may not be moved.
